CITY TRUSTEES MEET

SEVENTH STREET PROTESTS—PACIFIC AVENUE IMPROVEMENTS COMPLETE

The regular meeting of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale was held in the city hall, Thursday evening, Sept. 14, 1916. Present, J. S. Thompson, president of board, and trustees Chas. Grist, R. M. Jackson, F. L. Muhleman and G. B. Woodberry. Also present, J. C. Sherer, city clerk; Mattison B. Jones, acting city attorney; H. B. Lynch, manager public service department; Edw. M. Lynch, city engineer; G. H. Herald, city marshal; A. H. Lankford, fire marshal; T. W. Watson, city manager, absent on account of illness.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

An application was presented from Guy Pixley for permit to conduct motor bus passenger service and being approved by city manager, was on motion of Trustee Woodberry granted.

An application was read from Don McLain for appointment of deputy marshal; the application was accompanied by a letter of recommendation from Marshal Herald favoring appointment. On motion of Trustee Woodberry, the application was laid over for one week.

A communication was read from Wm. O. Hood requesting that the board adopt an ordinance regulating the matter of automobiles standing on the streets, having particular reference to the jitney traffic. On motion of Trustee Grist, the communication was referred to the city manager and city attorney.

The hearing in regard to the protests against the assessment for the opening and widening of Seventh street was called and a petition was presented from the property owners included in the assessment district asking for an abandonment of proceedings. (At this time Trustee Grist and Trustee Woodberry asked to be excused from participation in any action of the board from this matter and temporarily retired). The frontage represented on said petition was reported by the Engineer to be 5465½ feet; the total frontage in the district being 9,550 feet, including 580 feet on Adams street, the total cost of the proceedings up to this time amounting to $237.25. The chairman of the board stated that it seemed to be the sense of the board that if the proceedings were abandoned, this sum should be paid by the petitioners. On motion of Trustee Jackson the matter was postponed for one week, until 8:00 p. m. September 21.

In the absence of the city manager, Trustee Woodberry reported that work by the Railroad company on Third street had been delayed on account of the necessity of taking the crew away to attend to work in Verdugo Canyon, but that Manager Bohon had given assurance that a second crew would be provided and the work continued next week. Manager Bohon desired the public to understand that traffic would not be interrupted during the progress of this work, as both narrow and broad gauge cars would be provided for the traffic.

He also reported that the Contractor's work on Pacific avenue had been completed, but not yet accepted by the engineer, and that the work of oiling of street which the city had agreed to do was very badly needed at once. On motion of Trustee Woodberry, this matter was ordered to be brought to the attention of the city manager with the view of having the oiling done immediately upon the acceptance of the contract work.

The city clerk reported having investigated the workings of the Torrens Land Law, as far as it places the responsibility upon city clerks, but made no recommendation.

WOMEN TO RALLY

Fourteen women representing the churches, clubs and fraternal organizations of Glendale met at Ard Eevin, the home of Mrs. Daniel Campbell, on Kenneth Road, Friday morning to make plans for a woman's rally in the interest of California Dry. The meeting will be an all-day one beginning at 10:30, Tuesday, September 26, and will be held at the First Baptist church. Mrs. Frank D. Wheeler, department superintendent of Woman's work of the California Campaign Federation, will be present as well as other prominent women speakers. Mrs. Campbell will preside. With good music the day will be one of great enjoyment and one well calculated to convince every one in doubt that California Dry is the only way. Every one is invited.

SCHOOL AND CAMPUS

PROF. OLIVER HAS LARGE CLASSES IN MECHANICAL DRAWING AND FORGING

Much zest and enthusiasm are being displayed this year by the boys in Mr. Oliver's Mechanical Arts department. Indeed the added equipment this year has been fully justified already. The increased enrollment points to the universal endorsement by the students of the excellent training in mechanical lines offered in Glendale High School.

It was an absolute necessity to add another teacher this year, Mr. Richardson, who has classes in both forge and machine shop. Miss Wall has her hands full finding room for the many students in elementary mechanical drawing.

Mr. Oliver, the capable director of the department, in addition to his supervisoral work, takes classes in advanced mechanical drawing and forging.

Aside from several new machines, various little conveniences are in evidence which add greatly to the department, and it gives Mr. Oliver great satisfaction that his never-ending efforts are being appreciated more than ever this year. Those taking shop this year are: E. Brown, M. Fishel, L. Kepler, M. Kranz, W. Peters, R. Paine, M. Sheriger, L. Rowe, E. Seay, S. Smith, G. Terrill, R. Verdugo, F. Weaver, A. Williams, L. Lanterman.

The classes in forging include: R. Taylor, F. Wilson, W. McIver, P. Hodge, M. Reeves, W. Clark, F. Shively, E. Proeless, V. Enoch, M. Brown, C. Hargette, J. McClusky, L. Jones, E. Dopp, M. Fischel, H. Kennedy, F. Searle, G. Skow, G. Terrill, F. Bacon, E. Procless, M. Brown, C. Wright.

Tennis enthusiasts are rejoicing over the two new nets supplied this year for their benefit. The three High school courts are full most of the time.

Joyce Dominy, a former student in Glendale High school, and Hazel Flower of Glendale, were visitors at the school yesterday. Both have a wide acquaintance among the young people, and were accorded a hearty welcome.

SWEET SIXTEEN

Miss Anabel McClellan of 318 S. Central avenue recently reached the interesting age of sixteen years and this important event was duly celebrated. Miss Marcella Orth entertained most delightfully in compliment to Miss McClellan with a surprise affair. Twenty of her young friends gathered at the home of Miss Orth, 435 S. Central, where they greeted the birthday girl. Recovering from her surprise, which was genuine, she joined heartily in the evening's fun. Games provided by the hostess passed the time quickly, Miss Eva Gould and Harry Wilson being fortunate in winning prizes while Lester Meyer was consoled with the booby prize. Decorations of yellow and white added charm to the affair and the dainty refreshments were greatly enjoyed. The charming hostess was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by her mother, Mrs. McClellan, and Mrs. Mary Cox. The young people who thus assisted Miss McClellan in celebrating her birthday were:

Eva Gould, Marjorie Singleton, Helen Bott, Tessa Bott, Anabel McClellan, Marcella Orth, Helen Gould, Mildred Singleton, Ruth Spafford, Hettie Orth, Guy Pixley, Frances Hoopes, Clarence Klum, Dean Sharman, Harry Wilson, Lester Meyer, Paul Terry, Ellis Thomas, John Losh, Warren Woods.

Later Miss McClellan entertained at a slumber party in honor of her birthday. Misses Marcella Orth, Marjorie Singleton, Jane Snyder, Edna Burson, Elizabeth Allen, Harriett Williams, Aileen Cole and Helen Begg were invited to spend the night with Miss McClellan. The young ladies were entertained with a theatre party at the Palace Grand under the chaperonage of Mrs. J. B. McClellan and enjoyed refreshment at a chocolate shop after the theater. All kinds of girlish fun were indulged in, terminating in a midnight lunch.

BAPTIST CHURCH RALLY

The First Baptist church is planning a rally for Sunday, Sept. 24. This will be essentially a people's day. The Sunday School will have charge of the morning services. The Junior Young People's Union will handle the afternoon services and the B. Y. P. U. will assume direction of the evening services, when the Rev. Vernon Cowsert will preach.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Saturday; foggy along the coast; westerly winds.

DARING AVIATOR FLIES ACROSS BULGARIA

FRENCH AIRMAN SUCCESSFULLY EVADES ENEMY AND MAKES TRIP FROM SALONIKI TO BUCHAREST

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Sept. 15.—One of the French aviation corps now stationed at Sa'oniki, whose name has not been made public, made a daring and valuable flight across the whole breadth of Bulgaria to the Roumanian capital, Bucharest. In the course of his flight the Frenchman was frequently fired at by anti-aircraft guns, but sustained no damage. The date of the aviator's return has not been stated.

SERVIANS SUCCESSFUL WEST OF VARDAR

BULGARS DRIVEN BACK SEVEN MILES AND MANY VILLAGES ARE TAKEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Sept. 15.—After some terrific fighting the Servians have driven the Bulgarians back seven miles. The fighting took place on the left of the Allied advance and west of the Vardar village. Northeast of Lake Ostrovo they swept the invaders before them irresistibly. Trenches at Koval and Vetrenik fell into their hands as the advances swept forward. Several villages were captured. Simultaneously with the Servian movement the British and French advanced along their whole line.

BRITISH ADVANCE MILE NEAR GINCHY

GEN. HAIG'S MEN MAKE GAIN, DRIVING GERMANS OUT OF STRONG POSITIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Sept. 15.—The British troops made a large gain on the Somme this morning. By means of a rapid advance they drove the Germans out of their trenches along a front of one mile, with a depth of a mile and a half. The German trenches were manned by the elite of the kaiser's army.

PERONNE ON EVE OF FALLING TO FRENCH

GEN. FOCH DEALS LIGHTNING STROKES AT IMPORTANT RAILWAY AND SUPPLY CENTER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Sept. 15.—The French acting in conjunction with the British have smashed forward in the direction of Peronne for further gains. That important military and railroad center is about to fall into their hands. The Germans have concentrated their strongest and best fighting divisions over against the British line, which is on the northern end of the western front. In consequence the French found the moment propitious for another powerful thrust against the weakened line in front of them.

PRESIDENT'S SISTER SINKING RAPIDLY

MRS. ANNE HOWE IS FAILING RAPIDLY AT NEW LONDON —BROTHER IS AT HER SIDE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW LONDON, Sept. 15.—Mrs. Anne Howe, sister of President Wilson, who became ill a short time ago, is sinking rapidly. There appears to be no hope of her recovery. President Wilson, who hastened to her bedside the moment he received news of the illness, is still with her.

SWEDES HOLD UP 10,000 TONS OF COPPER

NORTHERN NATION RETALIATES ON BRITAIN FOR SEIZURE OF OTHER CARGOES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, Sept. 15.—Presumably in retaliation for the stopping by British war vessels of copper shipped to Sweden that country has detained 10,000 tons of copper shipped by the British government to Finland and intended for the use of the Russians.

DIFFERENT POLITICAL VIEWS

Again as the national campaign approaches we are reminded that people of the same community may have radically different political views. Even in the little city of Glendale where people are supposed to be well informed on all subjects and know the difference between the genuine and that that is not genuine there are Republicans who can see no good in any political party but the Republican party and then there are Democrats who can see no good in any party but the Democratic party. A word from the opposition to either one of these strong partisans starts an hour's argument in a moment. It depends upon early education and upon the viewpoint.

ICE CREAM LORE

ED WOHLBACH OF MUNSON'S TELLS HOW DAINTY IS KEPT

"The reason we have no complaints about faulty or defective ice cream at this time of the year, which can be heard from so many other places, is because we have a regular daily cabinet service from Christopher's, in Los Angeles," said Ed Wohlbach of Munson's Drug store. "The large cabinets at the back of our store are attended to regularly by the city manufacturer and we have no further trouble than to carry one of the cabinets from the back yard to the soda fountain.

"Ice cream manufacture has completely changed since the beginning of the industry. Now the cream is not completely frozen when it is made, it is put through the freezing process just long enough to note that the proper "swell" has begun. Then the cream which has by that time the consistency of syrup is poured into the cabinets and placed in cold storage where the freezing process is slowly and mechanically completed.

"It is essential to bestow care and preparation on the cream so as to have a highly finished product. The cream should be standardized and rectified every day so as to bring about the proper fat percentage. Aging the cream is another factor that influences the quality of the cream. Cream should be kept at as nearly as possible between 32 and 40 degrees Fahrenheit for at least 24 hours before it is frozen.

"Pasteurization of the cream is necessary to keep it from souring. It also produces uniform quality and in addition gives a more healthful product. Defects in the body of the cream are caused by allowing the cream to run into a comparatively high temperature after it has been frozen. This melts the surface and produces small particles of ice after the freezing is re-begun. These ice particles make holes in the cream.

"Unscrupulous manufacturers mix condensed milk with the cream. This thickens it almost as if flour had been added. Milk powder is also used. But saving in one direction they lose by reducing the quality of the ice cream. It is also poor policy to use low grades of flavoring extracts, because while they may be cheap they are generally expensive when disposed of in the shape of ice cream. They impair the quality of the cream and do not encourage the customers to make further purchases.

"Generally it may be said that the greatest essential in the ice cream retailer's policy is cleanliness. Ice cream, on account of lack of cleanliness, is often quite unsanitary. Ice cream frozen in containers that have not been properly cleansed is positively dangerous. It may be observed that Munson's drug store is scrupulously careful to have everything about its premises in first-class sanitary condition."

FELL OFF BOX CAR

Harry Riker, of Victor Court, Tropico, met with a painful accident while working on a box car, near the Robinson garage, N. San Fernando road, Thursday. Mr. Riker was standing on the car while unloading. He slipped and fell, twisting and straining his back and stomach and cutting and bruising his head. He was conveyed to his home, where he was attended by Dr. Boyer, who found that his injuries are quite severe. He fell on the back of his head injuring his head and back and suffering internal injuries, the extent of which it is impossible to determine at this time.

JAPANESE AVIATOR KILLED

A Japanese aviator, Frank M. Ouye, met his death on the Griffith Park aviation field this morning about half past eight. Ouye was trying out a new aeroplane and when about seventy-five or a hundred feet in the air something went wrong with the mechanism of the machine and it fell to the ground. The unfortunate aviator's neck was broken and death was instantaneous. Ouye was an aviator of considerable experience. He was twenty-four years old. The remains are at the Scovern-Letton-Frey Undertaking parlors in Tropico awaiting word from the father of the young man, who lives in Fresno.

GLEN EYRIE ACTIVITIES

WILL ENTERTAIN GRAND OFFICERS AT NEXT REGULAR MEETING

The regular meeting of Glen Eyrie Chapter, Order Eastern Star, was held at Masonic Temple, Thursday evening, September 14, at 8 o'clock. Shortly after Chapter opened a dainty parcel was presented to Brother E. U. Emery. He was very much surprised at this mark of special favor but expressed his appreciation for the thoughtfulness of the Worthy Matron and afterwards recalled the fact that he had suggested that refreshments be served at this meeting.

The work of the Chapter was exemplified preparatory to the official visit of the Grand officers, which falls on the next regular meeting night, September 28. The annual banquet of Glen Eyrie Chapter will be held at Masonic Temple on the same evening at 6 o'clock, the regular meeting of the Chapter to follow at 8. The committee on arrangements for this banquet appointed by the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Fern Roberts, are: Miss Cora Hickman, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Mrs. D. H. Imler, and Mrs. W. H. Bullis. They will be assisted in receiving the guests by the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Roberts, Miss Fredonia Borthick, Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mrs. Mary Ogden Ryan, Mr. Warren Roberts, Mr. E. U. Emery, Mr. C. O. Pulliam, Dr. A. L. Bryant, and Prof. G. U. Moyse. All Eastern Star members in the valley are invited to this banquet and the meeting of the Chapter which follows. Tickets are in charge of Miss Cora Hickman and all wishing to attend should notify her not later than Saturday, September 23, by calling Glendale 315-W.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Mrs. McArthur, wife of Dr. J. F. McArthur, of 808 West Broadway, was the victim of a very happy surprise Thursday evening, September 14, the occasion being her birthday. Mrs. McArthur was invited out to spend the afternoon with a friend and as soon as she had left the house some of the ladies took possession. They arranged everything as they wanted it and decorated the rooms in pink and white. Pink and white blossoms were everywhere and the lights were shaded to cast a rosy glow. A beautiful large birthday cake in the same dainty colors and bearing birthday greetings was arranged in a conspicuous place. At the appointed hour in the evening between forty and fifty of the friends of this gracious lady assembled at the house and at the proper time she was summoned home to meet a friend who had called. The house was dark when she entered and she was more than astounded to encounter a group of men, an overflow from the company in the parlors, when she entered the door. Just at that moment the lights were switched on and Mrs. McArthur beheld the large company of uninvited guests who had taken possession of her home. She was more than surprised and touched at this evidence of thoughtfulness and love on the part of her friends.

Everything had been planned so that there were no dull moments during the evening. A little program had been arranged and games, music and social intercourse made up a happy evening. Several birthday cakes made their appearance and these were served with fruit nectar. Mrs. McArthur received several pretty gifts that she will always treasure along with the memory of this happy evening.

ACCIDENT AT CALABASAS

The Scovern-Letton-Frey Undertaking company of Tropico were called to Calabasas Wednesday to take charge of the remains of a young man who was killed by falling from an auto truck. The accident happened about four o'clock when J. B. Betterton of Calabasas was riding on an auto truck. In some manner he fell from his seat beneath the heavy wheels which crushed his chest. A coroner's jury at an inquest at the Scovern-Letton-Frey parlors this morning returned a verdict of accidental death in auto accident. The remains are being held awaiting word from relatives in Canada.

BREAKS ARM AT PLAY

While riding a tricycle in front of the Moode home on Vine street, little Warren Moode, aged 3 years, fell off his mount and broke his right arm. A peculiar coincidence of the accident is that two weeks ago his father, member of the firm of Payne & Moode, Cash Grocers, had the misfortune to break his right arm while cranking his automobile.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1916

ACTING TODAY

"Trust no future howe'er pleasant; let the dead past bury its dead," sang Longfellow. There is really no tomorrow. We dream and speak of what we shall be and do tomorrow. Grand plans we lay out—all for tomorrow. We lay us down in peace to sleep. We awake and lo it is today. We cannot turn our back on what was done yesterday. It is a mere background for what is today. It may serve as a reminder to us of how much we may improve ourselves or as gauge of how far we have fallen short of the standard to which we should have attained.

What we have done and said yesterday are our dead past. They may be, as Tennyson said, stepping stones on which to rise to higher things. Looked at in this light life is a constant discipline and schooling. The past must be dropped behind. We cannot go along through life dragging a dead corpse at our side. The living have naught to do with the dead. "Let the dead bury their dead," said Christ. That is to say those who are constantly living in a past that is over and who can see nothing beyond the tomb where someone they loved lies are as dead spiritually as the body that lies under that sod. The immortal part of humanity must look forward and upward, not backward and downward.

What mean the failures of yesterday? Nothing if we still dwell among them; nothing but death. But they can mean life and joy and hope to those who discard them, cast them aside and set forward on the race that must be run to the glorious and triumphant end. The athlete does not win without a struggle. There is a moment in every well-contested race when it is a matter of uncertainty which competitor shall win; but one of the two exerts a little more will power and determination on his muscles and by that timely effort disconcerts his brave opponent and makes him feel momentarily perhaps but none the less feel that he is beaten, when that effect has been produced it is all over.

Looking forward and looking upward are the two correct attitudes of life's athlete. What we have won yesterday is but a means of winning more today. It will never be too much. For there will always be days when we will lose part of what we have gained. Man is made, however, bodily and spiritually for going forward. He is not meant to fall backward. Any man who is alive in the true sense of the word is a better man today than he was yesterday.

The battle of yesterday, except as far as history is concerned, is useless as a means of getting forward today. It makes today's victory possible; but even that is not enough. The real man, the one who faces life with courage in the midst of difficulties, is the one who will ultimately bring forth battle unto victory. He who would live forever must have within him the real life. The life that is united to the future not the decadence that is slowly perishing with the past.

STORY OF ROUMANIA

Roumanian history goes back to the time of the Romans. Bucharest, the capital, was a Roman town. The people to the present day preserve a Roman cast of countenance. The ancient Dacia was the birthplace of a noble and war-like breed of people, who were overcome by the great Roman empire that bit by bit absorbed all Europe. The people were great gladiators as Byron reminds us in his description in "Childe Harold" of the dying gladiator, "There was their Dacian mother; he their sire; butchered to make a Roman holiday."

In the Roman days Thyanus was the Daco-Roman capital. It guarded the gates of Tirgovishtea, once the capital of Wallachia. Built on the ruins of the ancient Thyanus Bucharest is said to have been established by Radu Negru, a chief of ages when historical records were rather vague.

It is not until the year 1595 that it comes into prominence by reason of its having been burned by the Turks. There was constant war with the Turks in those days. By 1698 it had grown into a great capital under Constantine Brancovan. During the eighteenth century it was in the center of the great struggle between Russia, Turkey and Austria. Each of these nations possessed it in turn.

In 1828 it was occupied by the Russians, who gave it to the Prince of Wallachia the next year. In 1853-54 the Russians held it. An Austrian garrison tok possession of it and held it till 1857. It had no definite position in Europe until 1861, when Wallachia and Moldavia were joined and Prince Cuza held it as his capital.

Prince Charles began the modern history of Bucharest in 1861. It is a very modern town. The river Dimbrovitza runs through it from northwest to southeast. The city stands chiefly on the left bank. A range of hills shelters it toward the west and southwest. It has a multitude of gardens and is a distinctly pleasure-loving city, having acquired the name of the "Paris of the East." Its beautiful gardens, its lovely flowered terraces, its air of luxury and ease, its atractive cafes, its lovely women, all give it an air of romance of which poet has sung and traveler has written.

Roumania's conduct in the Russo-Turkish war will no more be forgotten than can Osman Pasha's gallant defense of Plevna. One of the boulevards in Bucharest is still called Boulevard Plevna. In that war the Russians were actually beaten by the brave Turks under Osman and it was not until the Roumanians with an entirely new and fresh army joined the siege that the gallant little garrison walked out with the honors of war.

That Roumania will hold her own in this war is as certain as anything can be. She has the backing of the Allies and their armies now advancing in Macedonia are giving the Bulgarians and Germans and Turks as much as they can do. The attack on the approaches to Bucharest are possibly in danger for the moment but the real point of danger is where the main battle is being fought.

BURBANK

Board of Trustees Meets

At Tuesday night's meeting of the Burbank board of trustees, further steps were taken in providing for the installing of an ornamental lighting system along Second street (San Fernando boulevard) between Providencia and Cypress avenues. City Engineer Miller gave an estimate of the cost of the improvement. Time for hearing protests, should there be any, was set for September 26 at 8 p. m.

On motion of Trustee Hogle, and seconded by Linn, an agreement between the electric light department of the city and Irvine W. Biggar for the extension of the electric lighting system to tract 3097 on West San Fernando boulevard was approved. The extension of the city's water system to Biggar's tract was also approved.

Contractor Farley of the new city hall building was ordered to shelve the library room and place a counter therein, at a cost of $126.00. The contractor was also ordered, in a resolution which was adopted by the board, to construct a sidewalk and curb along the Third street side of the city hall block, also an approachment into the fire-engine room to be 30 feet in width. This improvement is to cost $153.00.

City Engineer F. Curt Miller was instructed to install a fire plug at the corner of Sixth street and Cedar avenue.

No action was taken on Trustee Linn's proposal to discover whether the city had authority to force the Southern California Gas company to lay mains.

IN A BUSY AGE

The only excuse for not doing the work it is our lot to have placed upon us is absolute inability. The verdict at Eden was "By the sweat of thy brow thou shalt earn thy bread." There is blessing as well as God's verdict for disobedience in that mandate. Work has been well styled "a guardian angel." Work roots a man firmly in his place in life and makes him of economic value in the world. All work, except dishonest work, is honorable. In these busy days we are without excuse if we are idle. The bees drive out the drones; idlers we sometimes think should be expelled from the community.

BOQUEL COMING BACK TO SEAL BEACH

The many thousands that stood awed and spellbound at Seal Beach during the recent engagement of the wizard of the air, Boquel, will be interested to know that they and all of Southern California will have another opportunity to see this wonderful aviator again on next Sunday afternoon and night and every night thereafter for a week with afternoon flights on Saturday and Sunday. Boquel has, during his short absence from Seal Beach, developed many new twists and turns which are sensational in the extreme, in fact he boasts of the fact that he never makes two air flights alike, there is always a new thrill awaiting those who are watching this dare devil birdman. Boquel carries fireworks on all of his flights to add to the enjoyment of the crowd. Ample train service is being arranged for on all branches of the Pacific Electric to care for the crowds.

DEATH OF ISAAC D. RICHARDS

He was born in New York state, where he had been in business for many years. He leaves a widow, who is in the East at present. The funeral services will be held in the Pulliam Undertaking parlors Saturday at 10 a. m. The body will be cremated at the Los Angeles crematory.

SUMMER HOMES IN MONO AND INYO FORESTS

The Forest Service has recently laid out sites suitable for summer homes, resorts, and permanent camps in the Mono and Inyo National Forests, according to a report given out by District Forester Dubois. These sites are available along Rock Creek in the Inyo Forest, and at Gull, Summit, and Silver Lakes in the Mono. The sites on Rock Creek and at Silver Lake are reached via the Bishop-Bridgeport State highway of which the Deadman's hill and Sherman hill sections were recently completed. Lakes and streams nearby these sites are well stocked with fish, in which large catches are reported.

The construction of roads, trails, and the increasing interest of the public in the National Forests as recreation regions has resulted in a larger number of campers and travelers in the Mono and the Inyo Forests this year than ever before. Resorts and hotels in or near the Forests have been crowded, and outfitters and packers have been doing a large business.

GLENDALE MAN PATENTS CLAMP

Frank H. Robinson, of 309 Glendale avenue, has received letters patent for an ingenious variety of clamp, made of metal, which is particularly adapted for making quick adjustments, which is easily locked in place after having once been adjusted and has a smooth surface against which the material being held rests. This clamp has a jaw frame and a jaw at one end of the jaw frame. The frame has an aperture near the jaw, a co-operating jaw frame having a longitudinal slot. After the proper adjustment has been attained, the jaws are rotated and the clamp tightened. The means of tightening the clamp is an eccentric carried by the shaft and forming a handle by which the gear is rotated and locked after the proper adjustment has been made. The tightening and adjusting handle being in the center of the clamp makes this invention particularly useful for tightening parts of any species of construction which is not easily got at by means of the ordinary clamps.

TRIP TO BISHOP

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Farrell, 123 E. Broadway, left Glendale Tuesday, Sept. 5, and returned Wednesday, Sept. 13, after having spent a pleasant time among the woods and trout streams of Inyo county. They motored through Bouquet Canyon, Chandler's, Willow Springs and Mojave, whence they struck across the desert to Indian Wells. At Little Lake they found an automobilist stuck on the road, his Ford having broken down. They took him on to Bishop, passing through Olancha and stopping at Cottonwood Creek to partake of the wonderful, cool spring water to be obtained there. Thence they passed on through the picturesque Long Pine and Big Pine and finally reached Bishop.

After staying at the hotel all night Mr. and Mrs. Farrell found time to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Legge, and Col. Thornton, formerly of Glendale. They then motored out to Bishop Creek, where they camped, and enjoyed all the pleasures of the finely stocked streams. Coming back by way of Red Rock canyon, Mr. and Mrs. Farrell passed through one of the most picturesque parts of California, equal to many sections of the famous Painted Desert.

FROM EAGLE ROCK SENTINEL

L. O. Hatch, president, and W. L. Miller, secretary, of the Eagle Rock Chamber of Commerce, were invited guests last Thursday evening of Mr. A. T. Cowan, editor and proprietor of the Glendale Daily News. The county press association, city officers of Glendale and officers of neighboring chambers of commerce,in all to the number of about fifty, accepted the invitation of Mr. Cowan to be present at a banquet and entertainment given by him to celebrate the third anniversary of the establishment of the Daily News.

The festivities began at 7 p. m. at the Glendale Sanitarium, where an elegant and elaborate banquet was served. Thorp's orchestra rendered fine music during the time. At the conclusion of the feast all went to the News office, where a large speaker's and band stand had been erected adjoining the office building. There a program of speeches by the editors, vocal solos and several fine selections by the Glendale concert band were greatly enjoyed by several hundred visitors and citizens. After the program the people accepted an invitation to go through the office and inspect the plant.

Mr. Cowan came to Glendale four years ago from Illinois and purchased the weekly News from J. C. Sherer. One year later he started the Daily News. He has been adding machinery and equipment each year, until now he has one of the best, up-to-date small daily paper and job plants in the State. He has a two-revolution Miehle press, a late model power newspaper folder, four job presses, two linotype machines and other things to correspond.

Mr. Cowan issues a clean, live and up-to-date paper, one which is a credit to him and the city in which it is located.

Glendale is lucky in having a man of Mr. Cowan's financial standing and progressive spirit come to her city.

There are several young people of our valley attending Glendale High school. These include Flossie Lea, Harlan and Samuel Durand, Margaret and Anna Armstrong, Opal Lea, Tony Farmularo and Ervin Potts. These young people are quite enthused over their work and the novelty of High school life.

Mr. Howard Stickney is attending the University of Southern California. Mr. Stickney won a scholarship last year in debating and this entitled him to a course in the law department of U. S. C. From the way Mr. Stickney debated at high school he will undoubtedly be a great lawyer in the near future.

Miss Rowena Green took up her duties Monday, Sept. 11, as principal of the Sunland school. It is hoped by all that know Miss Green that she will enjoy and take pleasure in her work in this new school.

The building of the new schoolhouse is under way, and this great improvement, together with the paving of the various streets, has made a great increase in the population of the valley. Every house is filled and others are wishing for houses.

Miss Dorothy Lester was the delightful hostess at her beautiful home at Flint Ridge to a number of the young ladies Wednesday evening, September 6. The guests were entertained on the lawn, where jack o' lanterns were hung artistically. During the evening games of many varieties were played, Mrs. Max Green and Miss Rowena Green capturing prizes for the games. An exciting time occurred when one girl blindfolded broke with the aid of a hammer a large oya, and gifts flew in all directions. Every guest had gotten a gift before their departure for home. At 6 o'clock lunch was served. This was a dutch lunch served in wooden candy boxes, and was quite a novelty. Later ice cream and cake were passed. Mr. Edwin Cooper is confined to his home with a broken ankle. Mr. Cooper on starting home from work one evening, fell and he thought that his ankle was just sprained, but on the doctor's examining it, it proved to be a broken ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olsen entertained very graciously at their home on Roy avenue Saturday evening, Sept. 9. The rooms were beautifully decorated with yellow asters. The guests enjoyed themselves playing cards, table croquet and in other ways.

During the evening refreshments of coffee, cider, candies and cakes of many kinds were served. Those to whom Mr. and Mrs. Olsen extended hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. White, Mr. and Mrs. Kraus, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Windshaw of Redondo, Mr. and Mrs. Leander Olsen of Alhambra, and the Misses Esther Olsen and Clara Armstrong.

Mr. White and children have moved to Muretta Hot Springs. This family will be greatly missed.

Long Motor Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Anderson and their daughter, Miss Elsa, who returned about two weeks ago from a long and interesting motor trip, have been delighting their friends with accounts of the many unique experiences they had on the way. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left La Canada June 21 to visit their former home, New Haven, Conn., where they have relatives and many friends. The entire trip from La Canada to New Haven and return was made in their Ford car and Mr. Anderson is now more than ever a booster for the Ford, for which he is agent in La Canada. The trip to New Haven was made in twenty-five days. They carried their camping equipment and pitched camp every night. They went the Southern route and found fairly good roads. They did not encounter one drop of rain on their eastward trip and had no trouble with their machine except tire trouble. At one point it was raining alongside the road they were traveling but the road was dry. While they enjoyed the visit with friends in the old home, yet their stay was rendered unpleasant by rain and thunder storms. On the return journey they stopped at Niagara Falls, Chicago and many other interesting places. A stop was made at the Ford factory at Detroit, where they witnessed the workings of that wonderful institution. They returned by way of Nebraska and Wyoming and camped two days at Salt Lake. The interesting experiences they had and the wonderful sights they saw would take a long time to describe. Such a trip is a happy memory for a lifetime. Not the least pleasant part of the trip was the interesting people they met. Perhaps the best part of the journey was in the result. Mrs. Anderson, who was in very poor health at the beginning of the summer, finds her health restored as a result of the out-door life and the change of scene.

LA CRESCENTA

An extraordinary run of motion pictures will be shown at the auditorium Tuesday evening. An oriental drama with Richard Tucker and Miss Carroll McComas, a Los Angeles girl, taking the leading roles. The play represents a story of a European prince who suddenly falls in love with a young lady from Chicago and forgets his duties as ruler, with bad results. The picture is entitled "When Love Is King." Another special feature will be the exhibition dancing of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle. These were among the latest reels taken before the death of Mr. Castle in the English aeroplane fleet. Their noted Argentine Tango, one-step, Maxixe and ballroom dances will be shown on the screen. The pictures will start at 8:00 p. m. sharp. Come early and get a choice seat.

Miss Nell Miller enjoyed the pleasure of having Miss Gladys Boyd, of Highland Park, as her guest a few days last week. Miss Boyd is a college chum of Miss Miller's.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce have just returned from a trip through Riverside, Hemet, San Diego and Tia Juana. They enjoyed the Exposition and their glimpse of Mexican soil.

The girls of Miss Nell Miller's Sunday School class were entertained at her home Wednesday evening. Miss Miller in the role of hostess was highly praised by the young ladies.

Miss Florence Bruce spent the past week in Los Angeles at the home of Professor Barclay, her music master.

The La Crescenta School opens next Monday with Miss Jones as teacher of the higher grades and Miss Haughs again with the primary grades. Twelve little ones will enter the first grade and an increase in the other grades is anticipated.

Although the people who live in the healing climate of La Crescenta have no need of drugs they will, no doubt, patronize extensively the ice cream and soda fountain in the new drug store, which will be opened October 1st, in the Weber Building, Los Angeles and Montrose avenues. A full line of drugs will be carried and prescriptions filled.

Mr. Hoogerzeile of Montrose avenue is beautifying his house by adding a veranda.

Mrs. Bell Miller returned Saturday from the Sisters' Hospital. Her friends are happy to know she is convalescing.

About twenty La Crescenta young people and their elders attended the county Christian Endeavor picnic held at Brookside Park, near Pasadena, Saturday, Sept. 9. Everyone reports a very delightful day.

Mrs. S. J. Thompson spent the week end in Los Angeles visiting friends.

Carpenters are busy enlarging the home of Mr. A. C. Cobb. The recent arrival in the family calls for another addition.

Mrs. Matson, Mrs. Bruce, Mrs. Mary Thompson and Mrs. Rhinechild motored to Long Beach last Thursday, where they attended the Ladies' Aid convention.

La Crescenta was represented by Mrs. Grey, Mrs. Wetherbee, Mrs. Volker and Mrs. Rhinechild at the Missionary convention held in Glendale Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Richard Green of Montrose is enjoying her vacation in a house boat at Alamitos Bay.

Mr. Joe Hawkins and family motored to Bakersfield over the Ridge Route last Wednesday, returning Sunday. They found the much maligned climate of Bakersfield delightful during their short stay—the nights cool and a pleasant breeze through the days. The young men of the family found the Kern River a fine place to swim and fish. The fish were caught with pointed spears as flying fish are caught at Catalina. Mr. Hawkins and Walter drove on to Porterville and Lindsay, where they visited the former's brothers. Business conditions in the towns named seemed to be more flourishing than in Southern California, due perhaps to the development of large water districts around Lindsay and the electric lines now being put through from Visalia to Porterville. The always-producing oil wells around Bakersfield keep this town one of the liveliest in the State.

A party of La Crescenta ladies are planning to go as representatives at a California Dry Campaign meeting to be held at Glendale on Wednesday, Sept. 21, 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoogerziele are spending a week at San Diego visiting the Exposition.

Everyone is glad to welcome Mr. Dickson to La Crescenta during his two weeks' stay here. Tomorrow morning, Sunday, Sept. 17, he will begin his sermon on evangelism, continuing each evening of the following week at 7:30. The people of La Crescenta and all neighboring towns will be welcomed to these meetings.

Thieves recently broke into the garage where Miss J. Addison's automobile was stored while she was a guest of the Pollards. The tool box was pried open and an attempt was made to remove the magneto. It is believed it was the work of amateurs, as nothing else of value was taken from the car.
